No. Vlad/903/01/2016

May 07, 2018

Dear Mr. Kanjilal,

I write to you in connection with upcoming Pacific International Tourism Expo (PITE)-2018 and strengthening tourism cooperation between Republic of India and Russian Far East. The Consulate is in receipt of major tourist and travel agencies operating in Russian Far East, who will be participating in PITE-2018. The agencies have expressed their willingness to establish ties and foster contact with the major Indian tourist agencies operating in India.

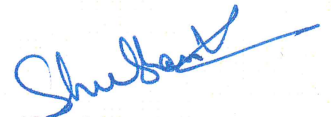

The Consulate is of the view that such a cooperation between the tourist agencies from both sides will further strengthen our bilateral relationship, especially in the field of tourism. This step is bound to attract out bound tourists from Russian Far East to India and vice-versa. A list containing the name and details of such agencies is enclosed herewith for ready reference.

As you are aware, 4th Pacific Tourism Forum and XXII Pacific International Tourism Expo (PITE), will be held in Vladivostok, Russian Federation, from 18-20 May, 2018. The events will be organized by Primorsky Regional Administration under the support of Federal Agency of Tourism at Far-Eastern Federal University (FEFU). For PITE-2018, more than 150 tourist organizations and a large number of delegations from different parts of the world. The coordinates of the organizers are: website: <http://prim.tpprf.ru/ru/>, Tel.: +79(423) 226-96-30, fax: +79 (423) 222-72-26, email: palata@ptpp.ru.

Indian Association of Tour Operators (IATO) is requested to make full-fledged participation through a delegation or representatives to directly get in touch with the tourist and travel agencies operating in Russian Far East. We would appreciate and welcome responses on CGI, Vladivostok email: cg.vladi@mea.gov.in or hoc.vladi@mea.gov.in.

The Post will make all possible efforts to organize B2B, B2G interaction on the sidelines of the event, for visiting delegation, inter-alia, other logistic arrangements.

With best regards,

(Shubham Kumar)

Mr. Gour Kanjilal,
Executive Director (IATO)
Rajendra Place, New Delhi.
